

on the move

JAPH OLENDE

Japh Olende, who has headed the Kenyan unit for many years, has been named head of East Africa while still leading the Kenyan operation as managing director. Mr Olende has worked in the insurance industry for many years. Starting as a trainee in Alico Kenya's finance department, he has risen through the ranks to head AIG Kenya. In his early days at Alico, Mr Olende worked in virtually all the departments — from finance to claims and marine and aviation — capping his technical responsibility as senior underwriting manager for all general insurance business. He was the general manager of Alico before being named the managing director of the then newly-branded AIG Kenya in 2004.

ALEX WANJOHI

Alex Wanjohi, who has been managing director of AIG Uganda, will move to Nairobi to assume the new role of director of reinsurance and business development for the East Africa region. In this role, Mr Wanjohi will develop reinsurance business for AIG in the region under the AIG reinsurance flagship — American Home Assurance Company — while at the same time focusing on developing primary insurance for business which cuts across the region. Mr Wanjohi has insurance industry experience spanning more than 25 years. Before joining AIG, he was general manager at Lion of Kenya (now ICEA Lion). He previously held other senior positions, including assistant general manager, general manager, and risk manager in leading brokerages.

ANNA OTHIENO

Anna Othieno, who has been general manager in charge of commercial lines business in Kenya, has been promoted to take over from Mr Wanjohi in Uganda as managing director. She joined AIG Kenya in 1994 as assistant manager, property, marine, energy, and surety and has risen through the ranks to her current position. Before joining AIG, Ms Othieno worked with Kenya Reinsurance Corporation for 11 years. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and French from the University of Nairobi.

FW: Message from Michael Whitwell / East Africa Staff Changes

5th February 2012

Message from Michael Whitwell, President MEA

To all MEA staff

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce several key leadership changes in Africa.

Africa is of strategic importance to the company and expansion across the continent is an essential component of our future value creation. We are engaged in seeking new opportunities as part of our objectives going forward.

As part of the plan we are creating an enhanced focus on the four regions of Africa; namely North Africa, Southern Africa, West Africa and East Africa.

In respect of East Africa, we have two vibrant current country operations in Kenya and Uganda and are seeking further opportunities for growth and profit across the region.

With effect from 1st February 2013, Japh Olende will assume the newly created role of Head of East Africa providing strong and focused leadership across East Africa. This is in addition to his existing role as General Manager of Kenya.

Anna Othieno is promoted to General Manager - Uganda. Anna will report to Japh.

Alex Wanjohi is appointed to a new position as Director, Reinsurance and Business Development- East Africa. In this role, Alex will provide drive across East Africa as we seek new assumed reinsurance opportunities as well as enhanced revenues across multiple Distribution channels. Alex will report to Japh Olende and Dawn Miller, Head of Distribution, MEA.

Over the coming weeks there will naturally be a short transition period, however, please join me in congratulating Japh, Alex and Anna on their new roles.
